

Curriculum Vitae
Kurt M. Kotrschal,
Summary, January 2012

born May 5, 1953 in Linz, Austria, Austrian citizen;

married to Rosemarie Kotrschal since 1975

two children: Katharina (5/2/78; highschool teacher in Vienna); Alexander (6/2/80; Post Doc University of Uppsala)

Academic degrees, all Univ. Salzburg

1987 Habilitation, 1981 Ph.D (Dr. rer. nat), 1979 Masters of Science (Mag. Rer. nat)

Work experience

1990 till present: Associated Professor at the University of Vienna Department of Behavioural Biology and Director of the Konrad-Lorenz-Forschungsstelle für Ethologie in Grünau/Austria. Developed the KLF from a Local Player to an International Factor in Behav. Biology

1989-1990: Ass. Visiting Professor University of Colorado Health Sci. Ctr., Denver/CO, USA;

1981-1989: Assistant Professor at the University of Salzburg Institute of Zoology

1984-1985: Visiting Scientist, University of Arizona Institute of Zoology, Tucson

Visiting Professorships: University of NC, Wilmington; at the University of Leiden, NL; University of Victoria/Brazil; University of Rennes/France

Research interests

Present: human-animal relations; science and society; comparative social mechanisms and (social) cognition in vertebrates; social complexity; social physiology, notably stress management and hormones; individual behavioural phenotype

Editorships, council, board and society memberships

Member ASAB, DZG, EG, IAHAIO, ISAZ

Board members: ASAB (2001-2004), EG (2001- present), IAHAIO (vice presidend for finance and policies; 2007-present), ISAZ (Fall 2009-present); Scientific Advisor Mars/Waltham (starting Jan 2010-Dec. 2012); Scientific advisory board: ÖKV (Österreichischer Kynologenverband; 2001- present), ÖWV (Österreichischer Wildgehegeverband 2001- present); Vienna Zoo (2000- present), Tierschutzrat am Lebensministerium: 2004-2011;

Presidency IEMT (Intterdisziplinäres Inst. Z. Erforschung Tier-Mensch.Beziehung; 2000- present)
Associated editorship Acta Ethologica (2001 - 2011), consulting editor Anim. Behav. (2001-2004)

Invited lectures and seminars, awards, meetings organized

60 plenaries and major invited seminars; 6 scientific awards: 1981-1984: Görres-Gesellschaft; 1983: Theodor-Körner-Preis; 1984/85: Max-Kade; 1985: Science award Land Oberösterreich; 1985: Christian-Doppler-Preis Land Salzburg; 1989/90: Schrödinger-FWF; 11 Scientific meetings organized (8 international, 3 national), major (responsible) organizer in 7 of these.

Austrias Scientist of the Year 2010

Research Grants

Present: 3 (2 Austrian Science Foundation, 1 industry, total approx 600 000€), all on social mechanisms, including human-animal relations

Expired: 21 competitive research grants over 25 years, most from national and international funding agencies, some from industry. Grant total of all grants approx. 3.5 mio €

Teaching, students supervised, post-docs

A range of courses, practica and seminars in behavioural biology, ecological and evolutionary topics, comparative vertebrate anatomy and biology, ecomorphology, neurobiology and eco-ethology, ichthyology and marine biology; 1985-2008: supervised 32 masters students, 22 PhDs and worked with 8 Post-Docs.

Publications, Contributions to Meetings

1980-2012: 200 publications in refereed journals, books and book chapters; book reviews, etc.; 400 contributions to meetings (abstracts: orals and posters)

Public impact

Numerous popular science writings, transporting own and others scientific results and featuring topics related to science and humanities, human-animal relationships, science and society, including science and religion; numerous media interviews on these topics; regular bi-monthly column in Austrias leading newspaper (Die Presse).
